

Bronwyn Ward-Manson

DJM COMPANIES

"WELL-RESPECTED LEADER, THINKER AND PRACTITIONER IN THE FIELD OF EDUCATION."

Executive Summary

My Goals: no bad hair days & providing opportunities to create amazing tomorrows

Areas of Expertise

*pioneer in the development and implementation of programming, planning, assessment, recording and reporting policies and practices that were based in educational research and keenly focused on improving student learning *international work included Australia/United Kingdom collaborative projects investigating time table and team approaches that assisted primary schools to cover the breadth of a curriculum with a focus on balance and quality of learning.

*willing to move outside my comfort zone & think outside the box when it comes to gathering information/data about student achievement *instrumental in writing and leading state-wide assessment and reporting policy and professional learning strategies. I have gained an outstanding understanding of principles of assessment and the links between assessment, the teaching and learning cycle and curriculum standards. I promote the need for reporting processes and practices to meet the needs of all students, parents and caregivers.
